Immigration & Asylum Act 1971 as amended by the 1999 Act

- Defines the Immigration Officer's powers
- To require people to submit to examination
 - To grant or refuse entry
 - To detain
 - To arrest Immigration Offenders

- Detention
- Detention Centre Rules
 - Detainee Custody Officer (DCO) requirements & powers

Pre-Entry Overseas

On Entry at UK Border

After Entry to UK

Arrest Teams & POSUs- apprehending offenders

- Visits based on intelligence
- Visits where there is no plan to detain but an offender is encountered
- Police station call-outs to deal with a suspect usually already under arrest where there is a potential immigration matter

Arrest Teams

- To comply with H&S, officers must wear personal protective equipment including ballistic/stab protection vests
- Dependent on the individual risk assessment, they may also wear headwear and hi-vis clothing
- Handcuffs, batons and belt kits may be used where authorised

Joint Intelligence Units

- To support enforcement visits
- Enquiries & visits cannot be speculative (fishing)
- Work in the community is highly sensitive so full risk assessment is always required
- Visits have to be carried out at a time which will not frustrate the visit and when the offender is most likely to be encountered

Detention Services Mission Statement

DS serves the public by escorting and holding people detained under Immigration law and by assisting in the removal of those not entitled to stay in the United Kingdom.

Our purpose is to ensure that they are held securely and safely and cared for with humanity.
